NEGRO EDITOR IS ASSAILED.

Incensed Man Seeks Reparation in Personal Combat.

A personal encounter yesterday morning between William Burton, a negro, and R. L. Logan, the editor of the Professional World, a negro paper published in Columbia, resulted in a bruised face for Logan and a fine of $9.25 for Burton.

Shortly after the fight the negro editor swore out a warrant against his assailant. When Burton appeared before Police Judge Edwards he told the court that he had been incensed by an article that appeared in Logan's paper which, he said, reflected upon him. Burton paid his fine—Columbia Times.

AN APPRECIATION.

To Eddie James of the Boy Scouts of America Troop No. 5 of Phoenix, Ariz.

The Boy Scouts of America and especially Troop No. 5 of Phoenix, realize a great loss in the death of Scout Eddie James, one who has paved the way for such an organization in our community today. Scout James was a member of Troop No. 67 of Kansas City, Mo., where he was highly esteemed by his brother Scouts. Upon his arrival in Phoenix he soon found an acquaintance with the Scout Commissioner of Arizona and it after much work succeeded in organizing Troop No. 5 of Phoenix, which has started an incentive among his little friends. Though he has departed the fruits of his efforts still remain and we as members of Troop No. 5 through these resolutions extend our heartfelt sympathy to the bereaved family.

Whereas, it has pleased the Supreme Scout Master of the Universe to pluck from the garden of the Boy Scouts of America one of its choicest flowers to be transplanted by the hands of death in the beautiful garden of heaven where the fragrant odors of friendship, loyalty and reverence might be wafted on the breeze to those who dwell in his celestial kingdom and

Whereas, it is nature for us to regret and mourn the loss of those with whom we have been associated and bound by the Golden obligation of our troop and

Whereas it is fitting that we show by some kind word or act that we still cherish his memory and that with us he is not dead, but only sleeping to be awakened by the call of the bugle at the great resurrection.

Therefore be it resolved that we, the members of Troop No. 5 of the Boy Scouts of America, extend our heartfelt sympathy to each member of the bereaved family and to the Supreme Scout Master we say:

"There is no flock hereafter watched and tended

But one dead lamb is there

There is no fireside however defended

But has one vacant chair.

Let us be patient then

Severe afflictions not from the ground arise

But of times celestial benedictions

Assume this dark disguise.

In that great cloister's stillness and seclusion

By guardian angels led safe from temptation

Safe from sin and pollution

He lives whom we call dead.

—Geo. P. White, Scout Master of Troop No. 5, Phoenix, Ariz.

Y. M. C. A. Notes

With the building almost full of regular tenants, it has been necessary to improvise space for the visiting delegates to the National Baptist Convention.

The following is a clipping from the St. Louis Argus, August 2nd, 1916:

Several St. Louisans attended the Business League in Kansas City and all of them are high in praise of the splendid service which the Paseo department Y. M. C. A. of Kansas City rendered to the visitors who were there.

"Mr. W. C. Gordon speaking of the Y. M. C. A., said: 'We could not have been better cared for. Those of us who stayed in the Y. M. C. A. as I did, saw clearly the reason why every city should have a center like this. Those of us, of St. Louis especially, could see what a help a Y. M. C. A. would be to St. Louis.'

"Mr. A. E. Malone expressed about the same sentiment when he said: 'I have visited every modern Association for Colored men in the country, and I know the place that these Associations fill in the community. My party and I used the Paseo Department during our stay in Kansas City, and we were immensely pleased with the treatment we received. I believe the men of St. Louis who were in Kansas City, determined as never before to work for the new building in St. Louis.'

Mr. Mitchell, editor of the Argus, had this to say: 'The Paseo Department was a concrete example of what a Y. M. C. A. can be to a city. I am sure we will never forget the struggle we are making for our new building, and we will win out as the men in Kansas City did.'

The above named gentlemen are members of the board of Managers of our local branch, and they are united in saying that the Paseo is the center of the social life of Greater Kansas City.

Mr. Malone subscribed $5,000 to the St. Louis building fund.

SECOND CHRISTIAN CHURCH.

The services last Sunday at the Christian church, 24th and Woodland avenue, were well attended in all the departments. The spirit of worship led into services of helpfulness and consecration. The efforts to bring out the efficiency of the congregation are meeting with encouraging results. The offering was good in all departments. Next Sunday the subject at 11 a. m. will be "Hands Full of Honey;" at 8 p. m. "What Must I Preach to Be Saved?" On Friday, September 15th, the Ladies Aid Society will give their one hundredth pocket dress entertainment.

Guest prize—A beautiful hand painted plate to Mrs. Zenobia Shoulders of St. Louis, Mo.

Home Folks prize—Mrs. Minnie Adams.

Second prize—Mrs. Grant Plummer.

Booby prize—Mrs. Bertie Grear.

The color scheme of red and white was carried out in detail. The out of town guests were:

Mrs. Clara E. Adams was hostess at a unique little party last Friday afternoon at the White-Wood drug store, 18th and Vine streets. Covers were laid for seven and the center pieces for both tables were China asters. The G. A. R. colors were carried out in covers, plates, place cards and flowers. Boxes of candy tied with G. A. R. ribbon were given as favors to each guest. After spending one and one-half hours chatting over ice cream sundaes and sodas, Mrs. Adams took her guests for a two hour automobile ride over some of Kansas City's beautiful boulevards and residence districts. At the close of the ride she surprised her guests by taking them in a party to the Empress theatre. After which each guest declared they had never spent seven hours more pleasantly than these and Mrs. Adams was a very gracious and charming hostess.
